

N^o 19.
The Rolling Kiddy 0

A youth comes up from London to London from the country

A Greenhorn and his progress is described

He learns to fight gets drunk a quarrel he begins and goes with the Guard (Lancs) lat. to every night.

And this is the way to be a rolling kiddy, O.

The Whorem all admire him, and say he is the Tipple, O.

N^o 20

One pointing out many of the inconveniences of working and the dislike people have to work & the advantages of Thieving the church was

Then who would work and not go a thieving
Then who would work & not go a thieving.

N^o 21.

A Kiddy boy from Broad St Giles no better than a wild Lamb.
Who he could mimic in the fields, a ruddy God, or Toys bark.
He prigg'd a little curly rogue his name was pretty prinking
And from a house an upstap dog than word in search of Dombey
How wove wove, sul de middle ri &c. &c.
How wove wove &c.

He found one on the fallow land that owns had been broke in
With rusty spur he mounted him, with which began to proke him
He held the buffer in one hand the other toward the donkey.
And Galliped off toward the farm with him and pretty prinking
This mad droid savage full of spirit full and his choice Dombey
The bloody end with all his might about the head he brook'd him,
Then he round the eye again, no matter how he set the
So he through the Village pass'd he said, come up you bloody thief
How wove wove &c. &c. &c.
Witherwain &c.

4

He

5

He got a man to hold the beast while he run after Dombey
The man not being in the least the boy has bin the donkey
The owner come and brook'd him down

Witherwain since the
the Kiddy boy & Dombey prinking
Who got the man or brook'd about for study of the Donkey.